Discover a charming place to live

Opportunity

Location

A tropical paradise tucked away into the heart of Cooktown. Built in the 1880s, historic Hillcrest Guest House offers you a charming home and income package. If you've been dreaming of moving to tropical Far North Queensland, this sensational home & business package is the perfect excuse.

A rare opportunity to acquire a fully renovated original Queenslander, also a very successful tourism business. Set on 2908 m² of land, the buildings using around 500sqm there is clearly room to expand and council ready concept plans available to show you how.

Extensive renovations carried out since 2011 have created a cool, clean, inviting home. Packed with history, and rich in flora and fauna, making Cooktown an ideal place to call home!

Cooktown the tropical gateway to Cape York attracts thousands of domestic and international visitors each year, with the Grassy Hill Lookout being a must-see attraction. Nestled into the base of Grassy Hill and a 500 metre stroll to the town centre. Pristine beaches, tropical lagoons, waterfalls, and outstanding fishing await,

Cape York is noted to be one of the world's last untouched frontiers, for many it is on the top of the bucket list. Cooktown is a unspoilt, small historic coastal town surrounded by stunning unparalleled countryside, Aboriginal culture, nestled inside Australia's Great Barrier Reef.

With its laid-back atmosphere and friendly people it is a charming place to call home. Cooktown sits at the mouth of the Endeavour River, 267km from Port Douglas.

Regional Update

The region of Cooktown and its many sunny laid-back charms and its COVID-19 safety are proving ever more popular with buyers and investors.

Real Estate due to the regions safety is experiencing a much better 2020 than previous years. Most investors are buying to live in the regions unspoilt environment. The regions growth is unlikely to match the likes of other places or loose its frontier charm in a hurry. In 2021 Cooktown celebrates 251 years since the arrival of Captain Cook. Cooktown is to host the Cooktown Expo show casing the regions place in our countries founding and Australia's first Aboriginal/European reconciliation. The Cooktown hospital will expand over the next 5 years.
